NEW BOILER NEEDED
BY THE Y. W. C. A.

Branch has been impaired since our steam heating boiler has cracked from the back. It will, accordingly, be necessary to install a new boiler before winter. At present this can be done cheaper than later in the season.

Although the Y. M. C. A. annual finance campaign will not take place until fall, we must raise $1,000 for the new boiler at once. The

The boiler is alive and working. Mrs. Gregory Davis, the chairman, is determined that the Y. W. C. A. girls may not be cold next winter because of an inadequate furnace. Our friends are asked to contribute towards raising the $1,000 necessary at once for installing the boiler. A number of gentlemen have already signified their willingness to do so.

Other workers on the boiler committee are Miss Annie K. Russell, Mrs. Luther McBride. We need more workers and more friends who will contribute to the boiler fund.

The gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. is one of the most important departments. We do want the building warm next winter, so that our girls may have a place to get the proper recreation. Let every friend of the girls in St. Louis do his bit.

ST. JAMES CHURCH

"How God Cares" was the subject chosen by Dr. Peck Sunday morning. His text was selected from St. Matthew 7th chapter and 11th verse. The pastor gave a brief historical sketch of the Jewish conception; God must be a king; man's conception of the Jewish Messiah is God the Father, all men are brothers. He discussed the three elements of Divine grace, Justice, Mercy, and Love. He said, in part: God knows how to give gifts to individuals to civilization, to race. He knows certain rules with which gifts which become the property of the race. The Negro has been richly endowed with the gift of song and poetry. He has not yet broken out of the gift of real freedom upon a waving, persecuted race, but he is slowly breaking out. The Negro will make from his apathy, and use the talents already in his possession, he will come into his own for God knows how to give good gifts to everyone of his children.
